The appearance of the code at the bottom of the first page of an article in this journal indicates that the Publisher gives consent for individual copies of the article to be made for personal or internal use. This consent is given on the condition, however, that—for copying beyond the limited quantities permitted under Section 107 or 108 of the U.S. Copyright Law—the copier pay the stated per-copy fee, for this journal $1.00 per article, through the Copyright Clearance Center, Inc., 21 Congress Street, Salem, Massachusetts 01970, a nonprofit organization. This consent does not extend to other kinds of copying, such as copying for general distribution, for advertising or promotional purposes, for creating new collective works, or for resale.
