The appearance of the code at the bottom of the first page of an article in this journal indicates that the Publisher gives consent for individual copies of the article to be made for personal or internal use. This consent is given on the condition, however, that—for copying beyond the limited quantities permitted under Section 107 or 108 of the U.S. Copyright Law—the copier pays the stated per-copy fee, for this journal $2.00 per article, through the Copyright Clearance Center, Inc., 21 Congress Street, Salem, MA 01970, a nonprofit organization. This consent does not extend to other kinds of copying, such as copying for general distribution, for advertising or promotional purposes, for creating new collective works, or for resale.

The Journal of General Physiology (ISSN 0022-1295) is published monthly for $155 per year ($175 in 1991) (postal surcharge Europe only, $28 [$33 in 1991]) by The Rockefeller University Press, 222 E. 70th St., New York, NY 10021. Second-class postage paid at New York, NY and additional mailing offices.
